Our benchmark is the investor.®

March 31, 2024

FundScope

Founded in 1996, Hartford Funds has grown into a leading asset manager with more than $131 billion in assets under management.¹ Our line-up includes more than 70 mutual funds and ETFs in a variety of styles and asset classes that have a strong, long-term record of success.

FundScope highlights some of the standout funds and ETFs in our fund family. But our measure of success isn't performance alone. It's a much higher standard than that: your satisfaction. Because at Hartford Funds ...

Hartford Funds Investment Story

We believe that delivering consistent, long-term value to investors requires continual assessment of opportunities, risks, and market dynamics. While we lead investment strategy and design, risk management, and fund oversight, two of the world's oldest and most respected institutional investment managers focus on what they do best—day-to-day management of your money.

Performance data quoted represents past performance and does not guarantee future results. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance data quoted. For more current performance information to the most recent month ended, please visit hartfordfunds.com.

ETF shares are bought and sold at market price, not net asset value (NAV). Total returns are calculated using the daily 4:00 p.m. Eastern Time NAV. Market price returns reflect the midpoint of the bid/ask spread as of the close of trading on the exchange where Fund shares are listed. Market price returns do not represent the returns an investor would receive if they traded shares at other times. Brokerage commissions apply and will reduce returns.

ETFs are not mutual funds. Unlike traditional open-ended mutual funds, ETF shares are bought and sold in the secondary market through a stockbroker. ETFs trade on major stock exchanges and their prices will fluctuate throughout the day. Both ETFs and mutual funds are subject to risk and volatility.

Performance and expenses for other mutual fund share classes may vary. Indices are unmanaged and not available for direct investment.

The Morningstar Rating™ for funds, or "star rating", is calculated for funds and separate accounts with at least a 3-year history. Exchange-traded funds and open-ended mutual funds are considered a single population for comparative purposes. Star rating based on a Morningstar Risk-Adjusted Return measure that accounts for variation in a managed product's monthly excess performance (without adjusting for any sales load, if applicable), placing more emphasis on downward variations and rewarding consistent performance. 5 stars are assigned to the top 10%, 4 stars to the next 22.5%, 3 stars to the next 35%, 2 stars to the next 22.5%, and 1 star to the bottom 10%. Overall Morningstar Rating is derived from a weighted average of the performance figures associated with its 3-, 5-, and 10-year (if applicable) Morningstar Rating metrics. Important Risk Considerations

Investing involves risk, including the possible loss of principal. Security prices fluctuate in value depending on general market and economic conditions and the prospects of individual companies. • Fixed income security risks include credit, liquidity, call, duration, event, and interest-rate risk. As interest rates rise, bond prices generally fall. • Investments in high-yield (“junk”) bonds involve greater risk of price volatility, illiquidity, and default than higher-rated debt securities. • Loans can be difficult to value and less liquid than other types of debt instruments; they are also subject to nonpayment, collateral, bankruptcy, default, extension, prepayment and insolvency risks. • Derivatives are generally more volatile and sensitive to changes in market or economic conditions than other securities; their risks include currency, leverage, liquidity, index, pricing, regulatory and counterparty risk. • Obligations of US Government agencies are supported by varying degrees of credit but are generally not backed by the full faith and credit of the US Government. • Municipal securities may be adversely impacted by state/local, political, economic, or market conditions. Investors may be subject to the federal Alternative Minimum Tax as well as state and local income taxes. Capital gains, if any, are taxable.

Foreign investments may be more volatile and less liquid than US investments and are subject to the risk of currency fluctuations and adverse political, economic, and regulatory developments. These risks may be greater, and include additional risks, for investments in emerging markets or if a fund focuses in a particular geographic region or country. • Small- and mid-cap securities can have greater risks and volatility than large-cap securities. • For dividend-paying stocks, dividends are not guaranteed and may decrease without notice. • To the extent a fund focuses on one or more sectors, the fund may be subject to increased volatility and risk of loss if adverse developments occur. • Financially material environmental, social and/or governance (ESG) characteristics are one of several factors that may be considered. The Fund may perform differently from funds that do not integrate ESG into their analysis. • A fund’s impact investing focus may cause the Fund to forego certain investment opportunities and underperform funds that do not have a similar focus.

Diversification does not eliminate the risk of experiencing investment losses.

HTRB, HMOP, and HTAB: The net asset value (NAV) of the funds’ shares may fluctuate due to changes in the market value of the funds’ holdings which may in-turn fluctuate due to market and economic conditions. The funds’ share prices may fluctuate due to changes in the relative supply of and demand for the shares on an exchange. The funds are actively managed and do not seek to replicate the performance of a specified index. • In certain instances, unlike other ETFs, the funds may effect creations and redemptions partly or wholly for cash, rather than in-kind, which may make the funds less tax-efficient and incur more fees than an ETF that primarily or wholly effects creations and redemptions in-kind.

Glossary

30-Day SEC Yield reflects the hypothetical net current income earned, after the deduction of a fund’s expenses, during a 30-day period, expressed as an annual percentage rate based on the fund’s share price at the end of the period. Actual income distributions will usually differ.

Unsubsidized 30-Day SEC Yield is the Fund’s 30-Day SEC yield without the impact of fee/expense waivers.

Duration measures the sensitivity of an asset or portfolio’s price to nominal interest rate movement.

At Hartford Funds, your investment satisfaction is our measure of success. That's why we use an approach we call human-centric investing that considers not only how the economy and stock market impact your investments, but also how societal influences, generational differences, and your stage of life shape you as an investor.

Instead of cookie-cutter recommendations and generic goals, we think you deserve personalized advice from a financial professional who understands your financial situation and can build a financial plan tailored to your needs.

Delivering strong performance is always our top priority. But the numbers on the page are only half the story. The true test is whether or not an investment is performing to your expectations.
