HARTFORD FUNDS

Our benchmark is the investor.®

At Hartford Funds, your investment satisfaction is our measure of success. That's why we use an approach we call human-centric investing that considers not only how the economy and stock market impact your investments, but also how societal influences, generational differences, and your stage of life shape you as an investor.

Instead of cookie-cutter recommendations and generic goals, we think you deserve personalized advice from a financial professional who understands your financial situation and can build a financial plan tailored to your needs.

Delivering strong performance is always our top priority. But the numbers on the page are only half the story. The true test is whether or not an investment is performing to your expectations.

Investing involves risk, including the possible loss of principal. The net asset value (NAV) of the Funds' shares may fluctuate due to changes in the market value of the Funds' holdings which may in-turn fluctuate due to market and economic conditions. The Funds' share price may fluctuate due to changes in the relative supply of and demand for the shares on an exchange. • Foreign investments may be more volatile and less liquid than U.S. investments and are subject to the risk of currency fluctuations and adverse political, economic and regulatory developments. These risks may be greater, and include additional risks, for investments in emerging markets. • Investments focused in a country, region, industry or group of industries may increase volatility and risk. • Small cap securities can have greater risks, including liquidity risk, and volatility than large-cap securities. • Integration of environmental, social, and/or governance (ESG) characteristics into the investment process may not work as intended. • The Multifactor ETFs are not actively managed but rather attempt to track the performance of an index. The Multifactor ETF returns may diverge from that of the index.

Fixed income security risks include credit, liquidity, call, duration, event and interest-rate risk. As interest rates rise, bond prices generally fall. • Investments in high-yield ("junk") bonds involve greater risk of price volatility, illiquidity, and default than higher-rated debt securities. • Municipal securities may be adversely impacted by state/local, political, economic, or market conditions. Investors may be subject to the federal Alternative Minimum Tax as well as state and local income taxes. Capital gains, if any, are taxable. • The fixed income ETFs are actively managed and do not seek to replicate the performance of a specified index.

Diversification does not ensure a profit or protect against a loss.
