Share Class Inception: R3, R4, R5, Y - 10/24/16; SDR - 9/28/15. Share class performance prior to 10/24/16 reflects the performance of the predecessor fund. Performance shown prior to the inception of a class reflects performance and operating expenses of another class(es). Had fees and expenses of a class been reflected for the periods prior to the inception of that class, performance would be different. Since inception (SI) performance is from 8/6/93. Performance and expenses for other share classes will vary. Additional information is in the prospectus.

Russell 2000 Index measures the performance of the small-cap segment of the U.S. equity universe. Indices are unmanaged and not available for direct investment.

Important Risks: Investing involves risk, including the possible loss of principal. Security prices fluctuate in value depending on general market and economic conditions and the prospects of individual companies. • Small-cap securities can have greater risks and volatility than large-cap securities.

Asset Weighted Market Cap is the value of a corporation as determined by the number of outstanding shares of common stock multiplied by the price per share. Beta measures the volatility of a portfolio relative to a benchmark. A beta of less than 1.00 indicates lower risk than the market; a beta of greater than 1.00 indicates higher risk than the market. Price/Book is the ratio of a stock's price to its book value per share. Price/Earnings is the ratio of a stock's current price divided by the trailing earnings per share for the past 12 months. R Squared represents the percentage of the portfolio's movement that can be explained by the market. Return on Equity is the average amount of net income returned as a percentage of shareholder's equity over the past five years. Turnover is a percentage of a portfolio's assets that have changed over the course of a year. It is calculated by dividing the average assets during the period by the lesser of the value of purchases or the value of sales during the same period.
