Just the Right Size

While many investors have allocations to small- and large-cap equities, they may be missing out if they don't consider an allocation to a mid-cap strategy, such as the Hartford MidCap Fund.

Style Purity

Under normal circumstances, the Fund invests at least 80% of its assets in common stocks of mid-capitalization companies.

"Blue-Chip" Mid-Cap Companies

The Fund focuses on "blue-chip" mid-cap companies that are industry leaders with strong balance sheets and/or superior management teams.

The Equity Sweet Spot

By focusing on mid-cap stocks, the Fund has historically provided better returns than large-cap stocks with lower volatility than small-cap stocks.

Important Risks: Investing involves risk, including the possible loss of principal. Security prices fluctuate in value depending on general market and economic conditions and the prospects of individual companies. • Mid-cap securities can have greater risks and volatility than large-cap securities. • Integration of environmental, social, and/or governance (ESG) characteristics into the investment process may not work as intended. • To the extent the Fund focuses on one or more sectors, the Fund may be subject to increased volatility and risk of loss if adverse developments occur.

<sup>1</sup> Russell 1000 Index measures the performance of the large-cap segment of the U.S. equity universe. It is a subset of the Russell 3000® Index and includes approximately 1000 of the largest securities based on a combination of their market cap and current index membership. Indices are unmanaged and not available for direct investment.

<sup>2</sup> Russell 2000 Index measures the performance of the small-cap segment of the U.S. equity universe. Indices are unmanaged and not available for direct investment.

<sup>3</sup> S&P MidCap 400 Index is an unmanaged index of common stocks of companies chosen by S&P designed to represent price movements in the mid-cap U.S. equity market. Indices are unmanaged and not available for direct investment.

<sup>4</sup> Expenses as shown in the Fund's most recent prospectus. Gross expenses do not reflect contractual fee waivers or expense reimbursement arrangements, if any. Net expenses reflect such arrangements only with respect to Classes I and Y and in instances when they reduce gross expenses. These arrangements remain in effect until 2/28/23 unless the Fund's Board of Directors approves an earlier termination.

Investors should carefully consider a fund's investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses. This and other important information is contained in a fund's full prospectus and summary prospectus, which can be obtained by visiting hartfordfunds.com.
