

Bill McManus, CIMA®

Vice President and Managing Director
Applied Insights

Bill is a financial services expert with more than 20 years of experience. He simplifies complex financial strategies to engage and educate clients and prospects. Passionate about future planning, Bill helps clients prepare for lifestyle changes and guides financial professionals in optimizing their practices. As a sought-after speaker and consultant, he delivers clear, actionable insights to help enhance client experiences and business success.