

US and International Markets Have Moved in Cycles

While we hope US stocks continue to perform well, history suggests that international stocks may soon have their day in the sun. Since 1975, the outperformance cycle for US versus international stocks has lasted an average of 7.8 years. We're currently 10.3 years into the current cycle of US outperformance, which suggests the tides may be getting ready to turn.

US Equity vs. International Equity 5-Year Monthly Rolling Returns (1/31/1975-6/30/2021)

The chart shows the values of the S&P 500 Index's returns minus the MSCI World ex USA Index's returns. When the line is above 0, domestic stocks outperformed international stocks. When the line is below 0, international stocks outperformed domestic stocks.
